February 9, 2010

Dear River Mill Parents,

As you are well aware, winter has affected our school calendar. At this point, we have exhausted all scheduled make-up days built into the 2009-2010 school calendar.

The make-up days for the four inclement weather closing days this month will be: February 15, February 26, March 19, and March 22, 2010.

High School Face-to-Face Conferences scheduled for February 26, 2010 has been cancelled. If you have concerns about your student's progress in any high school class, please contact your student's teacher directly.

If school is closed another day due to inclement weather, it will be made up on Friday April 2, 2010. Any snow days beyond that will be made up on the Saturday following the snow day (weather permitting) from 8:00-11:00. No lunch will be served on Saturdays.

Thank you for your support as we deal with winter weather.

Sincerely,

Jeff Dishmon
